ANZAC Day service

On Thursday our Senior School students travelled to the Tim Neville Arboretum to participate in the Boronia Rotary ANZAC day commemoration. The students heard from a war historian about a World War 1 hero called Ernest Pearson. Ask them about his story (or google it)! Winston and Jon laid a wreath on behalf of Knox Central!

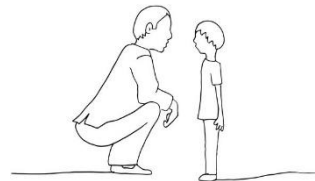

I was very proud of all our students!

Speech Therapy Tip 5

Fortnightly language tips for the home

Describe your everyday activities out loud to your child. While in the supermarket, point out the vegetable and name it. Explain what you are doing while cooking a meal. Point out objects around the house when you are cleaning it. Make your explanations simple and include appropriate grammar and information (e.g. "I'm chopping the tomatoes into halves"). If you can, try and get down to the level of your child to improve the sentence model.
